Reading Comprehension Passages : Level C Reading Comprehension Passages with Text Evidence Questions : Reading Comprehension 1st Grade Createspace Independent Publishing Platform Reading Comprehension Passages: Level C Reading Comprehension Passages with Text Evidence Questions: Reading Comprehension 1st Grade: This product is designed to help kids who are reading at Guided Reading Level C become skilled at reading simple passages and answering text-based reading comprehension questions. As students find the evidence that supports their answers, they participate in their very first close reading lessons. This pack is ideal for morning work once students are familiar with the format. (Upon request, an abridged version of this product is now also listed in Spanish. If you'd like to take a look, please click here.) This packet includes 30 reading comprehension passages with three reading comprehension questions per passage. Each passage is presented twice. : In the first set, the passages are provided in a standard format. I have students circle the correct answer and also write it on the line. : In the second set, a color-coded crayon is provided in each answer box. Students use that color to underline the evidence in the text that supports their answer & also answer in a standard format. Supports the following Kindergarten and First Grade standards: CCSS ELA-Literacy.RL.1.1 - Ask and answer questions about key details in a text. CCSS ELA-Literacy.RL.K.1 -With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a text. If multiple choice questions are new to your kids, I recommend putting simple questions in a multiple choice format during calendar time or other daily routines. I like to give each student

a strip of cardstock with A, B and C written on it and have them practice answering multiple choice questions by clipping a clothespin on the correct answer. This is an easy, fun way for kids to develop confidence answering multiple choice questions. Once kids are comfortable with the multiple choice format, I like to discuss the first few passages with groups and demonstrate how to answer the simple text-based multiple choice questions. Some of the passages are similar to each other so you can use one passage to teach and the other to check each student's understanding during independent work. I am finding that, with guided practice, reading comprehension exercises, kids quickly develop the skills they need to be successful reading these passages and independently answering the multiple choice questions. These passages are based on common sight words. I also have kids find and highlight selected sight words. Supports the following standards: CCSS ELA-Literacy.RF.1.3g - Recognize and read grade-appropriate irregularly spelled words (for beginning of year words). CCSS ELA-Literacy.RF.K.3c - Read common high-frequency words by sight. Comments & Reviews: "Great resource! After this purchase, I now have purchased Guided Reading Level C, D, E, F, G, & H. I have found these passages to be helpful in many ways. I love how the comprehension questions become harder and require more thinking as the passage levels increase. Thank you for this resource!" "Love these - straightforward, easy to use and no extra words to trip over. Perfect for my favorite kinder!" Many thanks for stopping by and taking a look! They long for a swirling snowstorm—if only someone in the big family would pick up the snow globe and give it a great big shake. Baby would love to. She alone notices the little family. She gazes longingly at their snowy little world, but the snow globe is up way too high for her to reach. Then, when a real snowstorm sends the big children outside sledding in the moonlight, Baby finds herself alone in the parlor. . . . Will the snow globe family at last get a chance to go sledding too? As readers follow the parallel adventures of both families, big and little, they will take special pleasure in the miniature world of the snow globe, where the skating pond is the size of a shiny quarter and a snowman is no bigger than a sugar cube. Reading Comprehension Passages : Level C Reading Comprehension Passages with Text Evidence Questions : Reading Comprehension Kindergarten Createspace Independent Publishing Platform Reading Comprehension Passages: Level C Reading Comprehension Passages with Text Evidence Questions: Reading Comprehension Kindergarten: This product is designed to help kids who are reading at Guided Reading Level C become skilled at reading simple passages and answering text-based reading comprehension questions. The Reading Comprehension LSAT Strategy Guide teaches you how to recognize the core argument and then use it as a framework on which to organize the entire passage, improving the speed and clarity with which you read. To further improve your reading, it walks you through the process of annotation, discussing where and how to take notes in order to maximize your comprehension without eating up precious time. It also looks at what types of questions the LSAT asks and then arms you with the skills you need to spot issues and identify correct answers. Each chapter in the Reading Comprehension LSAT Strategy Guide features drills and full practice sets—made up of real LSAT questions—to help you absorb and apply what you've learned, while numerous, in-depth solutions walk you through the process of selecting the right answer and help you to achieve mastery. Further practice sets and other additional resources are included online and can be accessed through the Manhattan Prep website. Used by itself or with other Manhattan Prep materials, the

Reading Comprehension LSAT Strategy Guide will push you to your top score.

The Phantom Tollbooth Yearling Books A journey through a land where Milo learns the importance of words and numbers provides a cure for his boredom.

The Cricket in Times Square Revised and updated edition with foreword by Stacey Lee Farrar, Straus and Giroux (BYR) An updated version of the timeless children's classic featuring a business-savvy mouse, a kind alley cat, and a talented country cricket, featuring a new foreword and revisions by YA author Stacey Lee. Tucker is a streetwise city mouse. He thought he'd seen it all. But he's never met a cricket before, which really isn't surprising, because, along with his friend Harry Cat, Tucker lives in the very heart of New York City—the Times Square subway station. Chester Cricket never intended to leave his Connecticut meadow. He'd be there still if he hadn't followed the entrancing aroma of liverwurst right into someone's picnic basket. Now, like any tourist in the city, he wants to look around. And he could not have found two better guides—and friends—than Tucker and Harry. The trio have many adventures—from taking in the sights and sounds of Broadway to escaping a smoky fire. Chester makes a third friend, too. It is a boy, Mario, who rescues Chester from a dusty corner of the subway station and brings him to live in the safety of his parents' newsstand. He hopes at first to keep Chester as a pet, but Mario soon understands that the cricket is more than that. Because Chester has a hidden talent and no one—not even Chester himself—realizes that the little country cricket may just be able to teach even the toughest New Yorkers a thing or two. The Cricket in Times Square is George Selden at his best, and the new illustrations and interior images by Garth Williams make this edition a special treat.

The first part provides both national and historical contexts for the study of reading comprehension. The second part examines how vocabulary, motivation, and expertise influence comprehension, and it includes analyses of the developmental course and correlates of comprehension. Chapters in the third part consider how schools focus on comprehension for instruction and assessment. The fourth part includes chapters on large-scale assessment that analyze how test formats and psychometric characteristics influence measures of reading comprehension. At the end of each part is a commentary--written by an expert--that reviews the chapters, critiques the main points, and synthesizes critical issues. Key features of this outstanding new book include: *Integration of Research and Practice--provides a bridge between conceptual issues studied by researchers concerned with reading comprehension theories and practical issues addressed by educators concerned with classroom instruction and assessment. *Comprehension Focus--provides a thorough history and rigorous research-based analyses of reading comprehension. *Assessment Focus--provides innovative approaches to comprehension assessment that include the influences of vocabulary, decoding, and motivation. *Synthetic Commentaries--provides periodic summaries that analyze and synthesize research, practices, and issues discussed in each part. *Expertise--contributing authors and commentators are highly respected authorities on reading comprehension (see table of contents). This text is appropriate for educational and psychological researchers, reading educators, and graduate students in education and psychology. It is part of the CIERA series, which includes the following volumes: Taylor and Pearson: Teaching Reading: Effective Schools, Accomplished Teachers (2002) Van Kleeck, Stahl, and Bauer: On Reading Books to Children: Parents and Teachers (2003) Hoffman and Schallert: The Texts in Elementary Classrooms (2005) Trends in Educational
